The image shows a handwritten musical score for flute. It consists of six staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a 2/2 time signature, and a key signature of one sharp (F#). A large 'X' is written over the first few notes. The music is written in a style that combines traditional notation with some shorthand, including many beamed notes and stems. There are several dynamic markings, including 'm' (mezzo) and 'f' (forte). The score is divided into sections by Roman numerals: 'I' appears in the fifth staff, and 'II' appears in the sixth staff. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a large 'X'.
